DEPARTMENT 363; REPEATED INFO LONDON 68, PARIS 87, THE HAGUE 52.

In leading article today's PEUPLE advocates severe sacrifices for increased national defense but stresses that peace can best be assured by following Socialist principles and warns "for a national army in old sense of word we will not give one man or one franc". Spaak advocates that Belgian people as well as other military leaders renounce outworn ideas and adopt propre recognizing fact that "Belgian Army cannot be more than a part of the European Army."
